NAMES CRAVER INJURED IN THE MARVINE MINE.

The Thanksgiving Day Eisteddfod Will Bring Together a Large Number of Persons-Star Basket Ball Team Has Arranged a Series of Games With a Team from Pittston-Providence Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., to Celebrate its Fourth Anniversary on Nov. 4.

James Craver was injured in the Marvine mine yesterday. He was running a trip of cars and was standing on the bumpers of one of them. After reaching a certain point in the road he was about to step off to block the trip when a car which had become uncoupled on the journey struck him.

He was caught and badly squeezed. Help quickly rescued him from his painful position. He was unconscious Blanche Cummins and Katle Richards; and remained in that condition for a long period. The mine ambulance removed him to his home on Boulevard Hope Pinnell, Clarence Harper and Lesavenue, where medical help was summoned. His injuries are internal and of a serious nature.

COMING EISTEDDFOD,

Thanksgiving day will be an eventful one in musical circles of Providence. The coming eisteddfod of the Schubert Glee club promises to arouse great interest and attract a large number of visitors.

This is easily perceived from the many musical bodies organized to compete for the long list of prizes offered by the society.
